Horrible Diseases.
[illegible] thousands of persons, both male and female, [illegible] who are suffering out a miserable existence, [illegible] effects of secret indulgences, or from virus [illegible] the system. Look at their pallid, smacked [illegible] faces and their broken-down constitutions [illegible] them for the happiness of marriage [illegible] of life. In this horrid situation thousands [illegible] until death closes the scene. Let parents, [illegible] friends attend to those who are suffering with [illegible] horrible life-destroying maladies—see that [illegible] and cured before it be too late. Send [illegible] immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has [illegible] diseases his especial study for years, and who [illegible] cure the most inveterate cases without mercury [illegible] injurious drugs. It is important to those [illegible] cted, or to those who are interested in the [illegible] their friends, to be careful of the many pretenders [illegible] who in fest all cities, publishing their ability [illegible] diseases in a few days, imposing upon the [illegible] using the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] other places. Be therefore careful and make [illegible] or you may fall into the hands of these.

Seminal Weakness.
[illegible]missions, the consequence of self-abuse. This [illegible], or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced [illegible] of both sexes to an almost unlimited [illegible] with unerring certainty, the following train [illegible] symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical [illegible], viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under [illegible] din in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like [illegible] of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] [illegible]ns, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, [illegible] dlect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching [illegible] strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, [illegible] to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] pimples and various eruptions about the face, [illegible] fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night [illegible] mania and frequent insanity. Dr. G. will give One [illegible] Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] that he was cured oft his complaint by other [illegible] Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,
[illegible] who contemplate marriage, who are suffering [illegible] of these fearful maladies, should not forget the [illegible] responsibility resting upon them nor delay [illegible] immediate relief.

The Prussians Near Paris.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Prussians are advancing rapidly on Paris. The cavalry is within ten miles of the city and fortifications. The main army is within thirty miles. The greatest excitement prevails in Paris and vicinity.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to La Liberte from Laon, says the troops are falling back on Paris, under orders of Gens. Unry and Maddern. The Uhlans have been constantly on the heels of the enemy since its retreat.

Good Feeling Towards the United States.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—Along the Boulevards to-night, the people are shouting "Vive United States," "Vive Independence."

Favre, to-day, again reiterated thanks to Washburne and the United States.

Ireland's Sympathies.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Meetings were held yesterday at Limerick and Killarney, to sympathise with the French.

Affairs in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—The people to-day attacked the office of the Marseillaise on account of Cluseret's article yesterday, and broke the forms and burned all papers to be found.

Switzerland recognizes the Republic of France.

The moats around Paris have been filled with water, and all desiring to leave the city are to do so immediately.

Jules Favre has declined the services of the Orleans Princes, and begged them to quit the city.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—The Figaro says the Republic of France has been officially recognized by Spain.

Heavy rains for the past few days have retarded the Prussians between Rethel and Reims.

The Guard Mobile have attacked the Prussians at different points, killing and wounding numbers of them.

It is certain that the Ministers of Finance, War, and Foreign Affairs will go to Tours at once. It is believed, if communications are cut, that matters have been so arranged that the authorities will manage to correspond between Tours and Paris.

A letter received from Strasbourg says the condition of that city is much better than was supposed. The garrison has plenty of munitions and food for two months.

Great Britain and the New Government of France.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Communications have passed between England and the new French Government, but there is no recognition of the Republic as yet.

Negotiations Reported.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—The Gaulois says the report that Jules Favre has gone to the headquarters of the King seems to be confirmed, from the fact that he did not appear yesterday at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

An armistice is under consideration, instituted by the Diplomatic Corps. The question has been submitted to the Provisional Government by Russian, Italian and Spanish Ambassadors.

Dispatches from London.

LONDON, September 10.—King William has given orders that Napoleon be treated as the Sovereign of France.

It is denied that Lord Lyons has gone to King William's headquarters.

A correspondent of the News writes that England, having declined to negotiate for an armistice, Austria has undertaken it.

The Standard's correspondent, writing from Paris, says the Prussians cannot successfully besiege that city with their six hundred thousand men.

The casualties of the war thus far aggregate 400,000; more than one half of this immense number are either dead or maimed for life.

The Siege of Strasbourg.

CARLSRUHE, September 9—7 P. M.—A special to the Herald says a flag of truce left Strasbourg yesterday, conveying papers for the surrender, from General Ulrich. The General has proposed a cessation of hostilities; the French garrison of 20,000 men to leave the citadel, which shall remain in the hands of the French, but pledged, however, to fire no guns and take no part in the Prussian war; the remainder of the garrison to be released, the officers bearing side arms; the Prussians to hold possession of the city. These terms were immediately rejected and the unconditional surrender of the city and fortress demanded. The Governor to become a prisoner of war, to be paroled. Permission for all civilians to leave the city was refused, except for women and children.

Russia and Austria.

BERLIN, September 9.—Authorities here are confident that Russia will withdraw her proposition for a conference, in view of the persistence of Prussia.

It is reported that, owing to the creation of the French republic, Austria is arming again.

CURRENT NOTES.

The population of Troy, N. Y., is 47,130. In 1865 it had 39,293.

The New York papers publish extended accounts of the opening in that city of the Grand Central, the largest hotel in the country.

They have a railroad in Tennessee which they call the "Tennessee and Pacific railroad," running, not from Tennessee to California, but from Nashville to Lebanon, a distance of only thirty miles.

The population of Milwaukee is reported at 71,464, which is far below what was generally anticipated. In 1860 the number of inhabitants was 45,246. The increase is therefore only 26,118 in ten years. The next city in Wisconsin is Fond du Lac, which has a population of 12,771.

The whaleship Rousseau, built by Stephen Girard in Philadelphia in 1801, is now undergoing repairs at New Bedford. Her planking is being renewed the first time in seventy years. The white oak timbers underneath are reported to be as sound as the day they were put together.

The Philadelphia Press can exultingly say: "In one sub district in this city, containing but 2,500 inhabitants, the census returns show 506 manufacturing establishments, and in another, with a somewhat larger population, 515. No other city in the world can make such an exhibit of productive industry."

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says "One of our fellow citizens, residing on High street, who has been maltreated for consumption and other diseases, by several physicians, has just been relieved of a tape worm fifty-five feet and nine inches in length, which had reduced him to the apparent verge of death."

The Perrysburg (Ohio) Journal tells of a grass widow in that city who was introduced to a man on Saturday, was buggy ridden on Sunday, and married on Tuesday. The groom came home drunk Wednesday night, and was kicked out by the bride, who threw his baggage after him. There wasn't much lunar honey in that wedding.

The valuation of property in the city of Boston, for purposes of taxation has been completed. The result is: Real estate, 365,593,100; personal, $218,496,300. Total, $584,089,400. This shows an increase of $11,262,000 since last year. The tax is: For State purposes, $246,775; for municipal purposes, $7,780,000. Total, $8,026,775. The rate of taxation is: For State tax, $1 65, and for city tax, $13 65 per $1,000. Total tax, $15 30 or 15¼ mills on the dollar.

A telegram to the New York Tribune (Aug. 27) has this: The best information about Bazaine's army, which the German official telegram now proves is shut up in Metz, makes his strength about 60,000. McMahon's cannot exceed 100,000 really good troops, the remainder being raw levies. The Prussian force left at Metz, or within supporting distance, is computed at 259,000, after deducting 100,000 sent to reinforce the Crown Prince. These figures show how tremendously the French have been outnumbered.

WAR MISCELLANY.

The armies of all the different states of the North German Confederation wear but one cockade, the colors of the Confederation, black, white and red.

A Prussian soldier who had been drinking lots of beer, in a bar-room, amazed the barkeeper by the following pompous reply, when the latter asked for pay: "I have nothing but my life, and that belongs to the King."

At the last French census the number of males between twenty and thirty years of age was 3,750,000, and the number of males between thirty and forty years was 3,528,000. Here, then, are plenty of candidates for "glory."

A New York paper says the manufacture of arms in this country for Europe is increasing rapidly. Several of our weapons are regarded as equal, if not superior, to the Chassepot and needlegun. The Remingtons are turning out 800 guns daily for German and French orders.

Dr. Lanneloungue, the Superintendent of the Ecole Pratique of the Ecole de Medicine at Paris, is now giving lessons to army surgeon students by firing shots into the corpses of the dead from the Morgue! He then sets the students to discover the bullets, and afterward shows them how best to extract the bullets!

The Paris Siecle of the 25th August, commenting on the news that the imperial headquarters were at Reims, said: "Who cares? McMahon can only have one headquarters, the center of operations. The imperial headquarters can only be a superfluity, an embarrassment, a pretext for losing battles. The crisis is too dangerous to talk of an imperial headquarters anywhere near those of the commander-in-chief."

A communication from Metz, 14th August, in the Constitutionnel, says: The forces before us exceed 300,000 men and consist of three corps d' armee—that of the Prince Royal, that of Prince Frederick Charles and that of Gen. Steinmetz, who commanded at Spicheren. The first two have from 130,000 to 140,000 men each, and the third 100,000. To those compact masses we have little more than 160,000 to oppose.

M. Gallairdet telegraphed from Paris the 26th ult.: In spite of the orders given by the commanders of the enemy's army, the Prussian invasion of 1870 surpasses in horror that of 1814. At the War Department, accounts are received from all sides of pillage and devastation, and of summary executions caused by the resistance of the peasants to the invasion of their homes. The Prussians concede to them no rights of defence. The Uhlans have all committed depredations only worthy the Cossacks of other days. The Empress shows a most noble devotion to the wounded. Every day she visits the military hospital, and extends care and consolation to the victims of war. All the ladies of rank, and high in social standing, imitate her example. There are, unfortunately, some exceptions to this noble conduct.

Considerable space has been given in the cable dispatches to the position of Thiers in the present complication. When the war was declared Thiers pronounced against it, not because it was unjust, but because it would have the effect, in his judgment, to bring about the union of North and South Germany, which he considered it to be the policy of France, by all means, to prevent. The result has proved that he was right. The very declaration of war cemented the two divisions of the Fatherland together more firmly than fifty years of diplomacy could have done. Another reason why Thiers opposed the war, was that France was not ready. In all his opposition we find no such thing as an objection to the unnecessary sacrifice of human life. In his estimation, as in that of most Frenchmen, any war in which France engages is vindicated by success, and condemned only by failure. Moral considerations play no part in the calculations of the historian of the Consulate and Empire.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

[From the Salem Mercury.]

Thursday, Sept. 8.—M. M. Learn vs. Smith and Beckly, appeal from Douglas county:

Upton, J.—This motion is made to strike out what purports to be a statement. The appellant has the right to make a statement if he wishes it. When made, the respondent has the right to offer amendments. The Court regards the Court below as the place in which to settle the statement, and not here.

There would be just as much propriety in striking out the pleadings as in striking out this part of the record.

The law provides that "the statement shall contain the grounds of appeal." If there are no grounds stated, it is probable it would not do the party any good; though, on that question, the Court does not express an opinion.

The motion is overruled.

W. P. Willis, for the motion; J. F. Watson, contrary.

Anna Newton et al. Lucinda Spencer, et al.; appellant from Benton county.

This case involves the question whether the heirs of a person who settled upon the public land in Oregon and died prior to the 27th of September, 1850, can take the land under the Donation Law, so called.

Argued and submitted.

Chenoweth & Williams, for appellants.

Thayer, Burnett & Strahan, for respondents.

Thomas Banss vs. L. H Crow. Appeal from Douglas county. Boise, J., delivered the opinion of the Court, reversing the judgment of the Court below on the ground that the Court refused to charge the jury properly upon the question of the delivery of the hogs in question. W. R. Willis, for appellant; J. F. Watson for defendant.

Henry Beckly vs. M. M. Learn. Appeal from Douglas county. Prim, C. J. Having considered the order proper to be made in this case upon the reversal of the judgment of the Court below, the directions are that the cause be remitted to the Court below, with instructions to remit the cause to the County Court of Douglas county and that that Court issue a license to Henry Beckly to keep a ferry at the point designated, upon the Umpqua river. Watson for appellant, Willis for respondent.

John Fassman, respondent, vs. C. Baumgartner, appellant. Appeal from Benton county. Motion to confirm the judgment of the Court below, argued and submitted. The motion is made by respondent under a rule of practice prescribed in 2 Oregon R. 117. Strahan & Burnett for the motion; Chenoweth, contra.

FRIDAY, September 9.

Canyon Road Company vs. B. F. Lawrence. Appeal from Douglas county.

McArthur, J. This is a motion to dismiss the appeal for the reason that the undertaking was not filed within ten days after the service of notice of appeal; and there was a cross motion for leave to perfect the appeal by filing an undertaking now. We are of the opinion that in the perfecting of an appeal the requirements of the statute ought to be strictly complied with. Time, in a case like this, is material, and unless the law is complied with, this Court can acquire no jurisdiction. The motion to perfect the transcript is overruled.

Appeal dismissed.

L. F. Mosher, Esq., for Appellants.

Watson & Willis for Respondents.

John Fassman vs. C. Baumgartner. Prim, C. J. The appellant took all the necessary steps in the Court below to perfect the appeal but omitted to file the transcript within the second day of the term. And the respondent now brings the transcript here, and under a rule of this Court, moves for an affirmance. But, inasmuch as it appears that this decree was rendered for want of an answer, this Court can have no jurisdiction, as no appeal would lie in such a case. The appeal was simply void and the respondent might have disregarded it. We are satisfied that the case is meritorious, and if we had the power, the judgment would be affirmed with ten per cent damages. All we can do is to dismiss the case. So ordered.

Burnett & Strahan for Respondent.

Chenoweth for Appellant.

Isaiah O. Murray vs. S. H. Oliver et al. Appeal from Benton county. Argued and submitted.

M. M. Learn vs. John Smith & Henry Beckly. Appeal from Douglas county. Argued and submitted.

MOUNT HOOD.

REMEASUREMENT OF THE MOUNTAIN BY PROF. COLLIER—ITS ALTITUDE, 11,218 FEET, BEING A DIFFERENCE OF BUT SEVEN FEET FROM COL. WILLIAMSON'S MEASUREMENT.

FOREST GROVE, Aug. 9, 1870.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As some notice of a recent trip to Mt. Hood has been given in the Portland papers, I have thought some of the facts and results of the trip might not be wholly devoid of interest to the public, and hence I give them.

I started from Forest Grove August 26th, in company with Matthew Brown, as master of transportation, and six young gentlemen, students in Pacific University, viz: W. A. McCormack, E. O. Condon, W. Humphrey, F. Hinds, W. F. McCormack and C. M. Cottier. We arrived at Government Camp, on the old emigrant road, near the foot of the mountain, about noon, August 30th, where we were joined by Prof. L. J. Powell, of Salem, whose knowledge of the topography of that region, added to his well known energy, contributed greatly to successful results.

Prof. Powell asserts that the mountain has much less snow on it now than it has had for many years, and in this his opinion is confirmed by that of others residing in that vicinity; hence we camped, on the evening of August 30th higher up the side of the mountain than most parties have done, at a point 6,093 feet above the sea level. Here we were able to get water from a stream that issued from under a snow bank in a canyon, during most of the day; but during the night and in the early morning, it was frozen dry.

At half-past six A. M., August 31st, we started for the top of the mountain.

Here let me state what is very evident to one visiting the place, but what I have not before understood, and do not remember to have seen stated.

Mt. Hood is an old volcano. Its eruptions were probably not liquid lavas but volcanic ashes, now in part hardened into tufa or baked into porphyry. Its old crater was what is now the summit and was from a quarter to half a mile in diameter. This old crater was more than 500 feet deep. Its rim to the north and east still stands, but most of the southern and western portion is gone. Of the southern portion of the rim there remains a single pier of rock several hundred feet wide and very high. To the southwest a similar pier of basaltic rock, standing upon stratified rock, has slid part way down the side of the mountain. The Sandy Deschute heads in a glacier extending from the southeast of this crater, and the Sandy has a similar origin to the southwest. Both these streams run white all summer with volcanic ashes.

From very many places in this old crater there issues hot sulphurous vapor in varying quantities.

Having started, as I said, after a vigorous climb we crossed the old crater from the south, and arrived at its northern edge at about half-past eleven A. M., at a point not more than 400 feet below the summit, where the ascent has usually been made. Here we met our first real difficulty. The snow near the rim of the crater had parted, leaving a chasm of unknown depth, at least 25 feet, and extending from the perpendicular cliff at the east far to the west. We followed this stream westward to a place where we could cross it and climbed the very steep and slippery hill before us to its top. Just before this last climb, four of our number turned back, so that only Prof. Powell, the two McCormacks, Condon and myself, reached the summit. There was enough of danger and accident in this last ascent to make it decidedly spicy, and to make us all very glad when we were safely through with it.

The summit where we reached it was a mere ridge, not more than three feet wide, almost perpendicular on the south side for several hundred feet, and on the north still more precipitous for several thousand feet, and yet with caution a man can walk to a few rods of nearly level space a little to the east.

While we were on this narrow ridge a butterfly fluttered up one side, past us, and down the other. We could run neither far nor fast to catch it, so we let it flutter on.

The view from the top was somewhat obstructed by clouds, yet we could trace the Columbia from the Dalles a long way toward the ocean, and could see a large part of the Wallamet valley. We found a plant of the Portulaca tribe in blossom within a thousand feet of the top.

We reached the top a little before 3 P. M. The barometer was at once set up and protected from the sun, and after about twenty minutes observations were taken at intervals of fifteen minutes. A mean of these observations gives for the height of the mercurial column, reduced to what it would have been at the freezing point of water, 20.090 inches.

The mean air temperature was for the same time 42.5° F. These and similar data furnished by Mr. Wilson, of Astoria, give for the height of Mt. Hood 11,218 feet. Three years ago Col. Williamson made the altitude 11,225 feet. This is a much closer agreement than I had expected.

Using observations made for me at Portland and Forest Grove the altitude is a few feet greater.

I feel confident that either of these measurements does not involve an error of 100 feet.

It only remains for me to add that a set of observations were made for me at Portland by Mr. J. Sykes Reed, by Mrs. Collier at Forest Grove, and a very careful and full set by Mr. Louis Wilson of Astoria, occupying his time for the most of four days. Yours, &c., G. H. COLLIER.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Major Will C. Moreau, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Eighth Indiana District, was stricken with paralysis recently, at the Sherman House, Kokomo. His entire left side is paralysed, and he is speechless.

The Legislature to be chosen in Michigan in November, will elect a United States Senator to succeed Hon. J. M. Howard. The prominent and known candidates for the United States Senate are Hons. J. M. Howard, Austin Blair, Thomas W. Ferry, and William A. Howard.

The Republicans of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania District have nominated Charles A. Barnett for Congress. The district is usually Democratic by about three thousand majority, but the Democratic quarrel, which promises to continue throughout the campaign, gives the Republicans hope of success.

The St. Louis Times (Democratic) says: "The Democratic Congressional Convention of the 6th District of Ohio passed a resolution requesting Mr. August Belmont to resign his position as chairman of the Democratic National Committee. This is a good move and an example which ought to be followed in every convention to be held throughout the country."

Advices from Tennessee are, that the quarrel between the Secession Old Line Whigs and Secession Democratic party is fiercely waged, the former presenting Gen. John C. Brown, and the latter Gen. Quarles, both Confederate officers, for nomination as Governor. In the event of Gen. Brown's nomination, the Secession Democracy propose to run Andy Johnson independently. Should this contingency happen, the Hon. John Trimble, who will be the Republican standard-bearer, will doubtless be elected by a plurality vote.

The Republican party has a more thorough and efficient organization in Iowa than, perhaps, in any other State. It has never lost a State election since the party was organized, and it carries every Congressional District, and out of 100 counties all but six. Its usual majority in the State is about 40,000, and will not fall much below that figure this year. The coming election is for three Judges of the Supreme Court, Secretary of State, and other minor State officers. The Democratic ticket is a ticket of strangers to the public—young men, selected by the young American element, which has completely routed the old fogies of the party.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING SEPT 12 1870

The Legislature

The [illegible] forward [illegible] expectancy [illegible] waiting Democracy has at length arrived For weeks [illegible] hungry clans have been gathering at the Capital County and precinct politicians of the Democratic faith from all parts of the State have assembled there [illegible] Every one thinks he must have a reward for his services, and that now is the time to claim it Gov Grover stiff [illegible] and aristocratic will be forced to throw open his parlors to the "unwashed Democracy," brave in well worn butternut and spurting streams of tobacco juice for are they not the wheel horses of the party "the sturdy [illegible] rebellion and repudiation" to whom Gov Grover owes his elevated station? All these have come flocking to Salem to receive their reward And now the great day has been ushered in the spoils for which they have so long been waiting, [illegible] are at length fairly within reach The Legislature assembles to-day

The Democratic party now takes the entire State government and is responsible for it Whatever is done or omitted that party is now to answer for. Though we have not much faith in the ability of the Democratic party to accomplish good for the country we hope to be more charitable toward the majority in the present Legislature than their own organs have been If those organs have confidence in their members why have they thought it necessary to threaten them with lynching in case they do not conform to the party programme? Such threats are insults. The Democratic organs have persistently asserted that attempts will be made to bribe the Legislature and have betrayed their fright by persistent declarations that every Democrat who does not come up to the requirements of the party managers may expect assassination We will be charitable enough toward the Democratic members to express a belief that this fear of their being "bribed," which has found expression through the Democratic press continually during the last three months, is altogether uncalled for and without foundation But we are sorry that the spirit of J Wilkes Booth is still abroad though doubtless these direful threats all emanate from persons too cowardly to carry any of them into execution

There will be a lively time till after the Senatorial election The names of the candidates is legion, though Col Kelly has more votes pledged to him than any other, or perhaps all others can claim A considerable number of Republicans attracted by curiosity are at the Capital as lookers-on Though it is not strictly in order for a Republican to have a candidate, we claim the right to name ours It is Mr James D Fay He is the best representative Democrat in the State being the only one who did not go back on the repudiation platform adopted by his party If we are to have Democracy give us the genuine article Away with all who have not pluck enough to stand by their principles If repudiation was a good thing to affirm in a State platform it is a good thing to elect a Senator upon If Democracy is to be our portion let us have "bed rockers." Down with all temporizers! Away with all whose backbones are marrowless!

Hon J G Blaine of Maine Speaker of the House of Representatives, has been nominated for re-election to Congress In his letter of acceptance he ably states the strong points of the Administration He asks his constituents to compare the increase of $30,000,000 in the debt during the seventeen months of Democratic administration previous to the incoming of Grant, and the decrease of $156,000,000 during the seventeen months following that crisis (We may state here that the reduction for the month of August carries the whole amount of reduction under Grant up to $170,000,000) To show that this is a matter of saving in spending as well as in collecting, Speaker Blaine places the current appropriations, which, excluding pensions and interest on the debt, amount to $105,315,000 in comparison with the $70 000 000 gold, or $85 000 000 currency, spent for the same purposes during the last year of Buchanan's administration when the population was only three-fourths of what it is now With an equal population Buchanan would have required ten millions more than Grant Under Buchanan, for instance, the army was $1,000,000 in gold per regiment under Grant it is $700,000 in paper currency per regiment The showing throughout is one that does infinite credit to the Republican party and its policy

The account of the ascent of Mount Hood by Prof Collier of Pacific University and his observations as to its appearance and height, is a valuable contribution to knowledge already possessed on this subject It may now be received as a settled fact that Mount Hood has not the altitude that many have claimed for it. The accuracy of Col Williamson's calculations as to its height are verified There can no longer be a lingering hope that Mount Hood is higher than Mount Shasta. We are forced to give it up, and we may as well do it gracefully But we still insist that Mount Hood, though it may not be the very highest point in our mountain system is high enough And besides we have several of these noble peaks while California has but one

This is what political shrewdness does We learned on Saturday that Mr Benjamin Stark ex-Senator, had not gone to Salem but that he would remain here waiting to be telegraphed for at the supreme moment after the Senatorial factions at the Capital had harried and worried each other and the chance opened for him to slip in The way to achieve greatness is to be able to know when the hour strikes Mr Stark has engaged in these scenes before, and probably is about as good an actor as they have on the boards at Salem

The French style of reporting battles is graphic at least Here is a sample "We advance Two terrible detonations followed by a plume of smoke inform us that the bridges of the Saar have been blown up We are in Saarbruck Victory" And here is what might be written of the general results of the war so far "We set out for Berlin. The Germans are before Paris Let us have peace"

The New York Tribune says the squirming of the Democratic managers of New York in view of the acts passed by Congress to prevent frauds in naturalization in voting and in counting, indicate that they have taken the alarm The Tribune estimates that the rings and monopolies of New York will expend at least $2,000 000 to re-elect Hoffman Nice party of the people Consistent foes of monopolies!

A New Project for the Dominion

The Dominion of Canada is not all content with its condition and prospects The withdrawal of the British troops and the evidences of waning affection on the part of the mother country has occasioned alarm and led to the preparation of a petition to the Queen which is now in circulation for signatures After reciting the grievances of which the Canadians complain and enlarging upon the [illegible] of their connection with the United States the petitioners [illegible] plan for a Convention to be held in November at New York or Montreal It is to be [illegible] triangular affair The Queen is to appoint eleven delegates from England eleven from Canada, and the President is to appoint eleven from the United States The aim of the Convention will be to obtain the sense of the three peoples on the points viz

First—The retention or modification of the present system or

Second—The establishment of an Independent Canada either with or without British alliance or under the protectorate of Great Britain or under that of Great Britain and the United States or

Third—The union of British America with the United States England consenting

The authors of this scheme are said to be the most active annexationists in Canada, and they count on obtaining one hundred thousand signatures to their petition The movement is of a rather extraordinary character The delegates from the United States in case the Convention shall be held, will probably advise the Dominion people to seek a solution for their difficulties in annexation We commend this Convention to the consideration of our British Columbia neighbors.

An examination of the poll books of [illegible] precinct Wasco county reveals the fact that the judges of election certified that four votes were cast in the precinct for Waldron and Rowland, Republicans, for members of the Legislature Also that the managers at the Dalles, when they came to count the vote substituted for the figure "4" the figure "3" thus reducing the Republican vote by one. Now when it is stated that Fulton, one of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature, was declared elected by one majority only, the point to this transaction is revealed If anything ever exceeded the infernal rascality of Democratic management in Wasco county in the last election we have yet to hear what that thing is

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

The Late Railroad Accident—The Senatorial Question—Kelly Men Count Twenty-Six Votes—The Political Cauldron Boiling.

SALEM, September 11

The railroad accident near Waconda last evening created great excitement here till all the particulars were received It was not after all a very serious matter Mr Cole was the only one seriously injured though several others received contusions and scratches Mr Cole's left shoulder was dislocated, but in an hour and a half a surgeon from Waconda reduced the dislocation, and he is getting along finely He is here to day walking about without difficulty

The members of the Legislature are here, with a few exceptions Harrison, of Marion, is sick, and one of the Jackson members is detained by sickness on the road It is speculated that Fay will be President of the Senate, with S C Simpson as Chief Clerk Whiteaker Speaker of the House, with McCunms of Baker as Chief Clerk The Kelly men count twenty six votes out of thirty-five The anti Kelly men are fighting against a caucus The divisions among Democrats are numerous and apparently radical Discussions between them frequently display more ill feeling than exists between Democrats and Republicans Kelly has before him a path strewed with thorns Unless he can cajole his opponents into a caucus he cannot be elected

The crowd here is immense There are hundreds of men of all degrees, from the purse proud nabobs to the seedy, needy mendicant looking out for the crumbs of office

It is generally believed that all Democratic contestants for seats in the Legislature will be let in

Many predict a 60 days session

The Senatorial contest will be long and bitter The contested cases may prolong the Senatorial fight

The Question of the Insane Asylum is already cropping out into importance

The Democracy feel that they must upset or reverse most of the legislation of the last ten years Altogether there is work enough in sight for sixty days

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT 10

The Sick Man Frightened Russia and Austria Negotiating for the Partition of Turkey

LONDON Sept 9 Extreme agitation reigns in Constantinople where it is believed that Russia and Austria are negotiating with a view of partitioning European Turkey The Russian fleet in the Black Sea greatly exceeds the limits of the treaty [illegible]

There is the greatest activity in the Austrian dock yards at [illegible] and Trieste

Whereabouts of the Prussians

NEW YORK, Sept 9—A special to the World Paris Sept [illegible] says We have no accurate information as to the position of the German advance Reports are hourly brought in most of them based on the appearance of foraging parties of foragers or cavalry scouts along the line of the railways There is no authentic reason for believing the enemy in force have ever reached Rheims up to this time Still the impression here is even among soldiers that the Prussians will be in sight of Paris by Sunday morning next

The Republicans want Peace on any Terms but Dismemberment of Territory.

In an interview yesterday held at the office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs Jules Favre assured Lord Lyons that the Republicans did not inherit the wars of the Empire that the Provisional Government will be very glad to conclude peace as soon as possible on any terms not absolutely dangerous or dishonorable to France Favre asked his Lordship if the English Cabinet would interfere and suggest terms of peace to be offered by Prussia such as he could be assured France would accept Lord Lyons replied that though England would be delighted to help bring the war to an end he had not authority to say that she would undertake to suggest terms of peace to either combatant Favre then said it would be impossible for France to make any such suggestion

A deputation of nearly 000 hundred persons went in a body to thank the American Minister for the prompt recognition of the Republic by the United States

The World's London correspondent telegraphs that the impression here is that France will accept any terms short of the dismemberment of her territory in refusing which she is supported by Russia It is believed that the Republican Government will consent to pay large indemnity to dismantle frontier fortresses and largely reduce the standing army If Prussia should insist on the cession of Alsace and Loraine or even Metz and Strasbourg the war will assume a new and most terrible aspect

Feeling in England on the Terms of Peace.

The general feeling in London is that Germany has a military right to demand payment of the expenses of the war, with reasonable gurrantees for her future security but she has no right to attempt to degrade and humiliate France. It is quite certain that if she attempts to do this she will be met by one of the most formidable European coalitions ever formed and that no man can predict the issue of the conflict.

Bazaine said to be Cutting His Way Out and Marching to Paris

PARIS Sept 10—Evening—There was considerable excitement on the receipt of a report that Bazaine has succeeded in cutting his way out of Metz through the Prussian army and is now marching toward Paris

LONDON Sept 10 A letter dated Paris 9th evening says the session of the Government lasted till 6 o clock in the morning A proposition was made to call a Constitutional Convention to impart formal authority to the Government The members were divided on the question—five voting for the Convention and five against According to French Parliamentary law a tie vote decides a question in the affirmative The members opposed to the Convention were Simon Gambetti Pelletan Ferry and Rochefort

OREGON CENTRAL MILITARY ROAD.—Mr W. [illegible] returned on Saturday evening from a month's trip to Idaho over the Oregon Central Military Road, where he has been placing [illegible] posts for the eastern division beyond Goose Lake. The road is now open for travel, for the entire extent of 460 miles, from Eugene City to Boise City. Mr. Odell reports it to be in excellent condition. The travel upon it from Eugene [illegible] to Goose Lake is now considerable, and if [illegible] prospectors for gold mines in the eastern part of Oregon in the vicinity of Stein's Mountain are successful, this Central Military Road [illegible] of great service to this valley in the [illegible] of supplying the mining camps. There is [illegible] in our mind about the ultimate discovery of rich placer and quartz mines in that part [illegible]. This road passes near Camp Warner, [illegible] the abandoned camps of C. F. Smith [illegible]. At old camp C. F. Smith this road [illegible] with the road from Chico, California, [illegible] City. It must be a matter of some [illegible] to the owners of the road to know [illegible] it is fully and finally completed. Work [illegible] upon it in 1864, and has pro[illegible] every season since up to this time—the [illegible] expending something over $160,000 in [illegible]. But they have a grant of about [illegible] acres of land as a bonus, in alternate [illegible] on each side of the road, which pays [illegible] very well for their expenditures and per[illegible] when they can sell.

BOTANICAL RESEARCHES.—Mr. B. Boezl, who [illegible] in this region collecting seeds of our forest [illegible] and other botanic specimens, for the St. Petersburg authorities, was very busy all day yesterday [illegible] his Cascades collection for shipment [illegible] to his departure down the Columbia [illegible] and thence to the Sierra Nevada mountains. The principal seeds procured here, so far, [illegible] of the hemlock and spruce. What is commonly termed the yellow fir, we believe, Mr. Boezl [illegible] the Douglas spruce. He has been [illegible] and is well pleased with his visit [illegible]. He has found various new species of both plants and trees, among which are [illegible] only one of which he finds named or [illegible] in botanical works of the U. S. Gov[illegible]. It seems a little strange that our Gov[illegible] State and National—should be so careless [illegible] subjects, as to leave the discovery [illegible] of our native plants to European [illegible] for the industry and tact displayed by [illegible] shows an earnestness and interest in [illegible] which is undoubtedly well paid. He [illegible] visited many places in South America [illegible] from there many sacks of fine [illegible] which were forwarded to Europe pre[illegible] for California and Oregon, [illegible] much solicitude for fear [illegible] the present complications of com[illegible] to the war.

[illegible]—Mr. E. M. Bates left yesterday for [illegible] and the preparations of the [illegible] theatrical season, beginning at [illegible] early soon.

[illegible]—Concerning the reported [illegible] Astoria recently, a correspondent at [illegible] under date of the 9th, [illegible] in the issue of the OREGONIAN [illegible] that Captain Talbot, of the yacht [illegible] victory over the winning boat of [illegible] at Astoria last season. Allow [illegible] Capt. Talbot, who I believe has [illegible] by persons prejudiced. The [illegible] at Astoria is the T. J. Winship, [illegible] by Mr. J. W. Munson, Light [illegible] Disappointment. The Owl did not [illegible] the Winship, but should Capt. Talbot [illegible] at any time have the opportu[illegible] the sailing qualities of his yacht [illegible] the Winship. While the Owl was [illegible] Baker's Bay, the Winship was lying at [illegible] the Cape, and she has not been [illegible] this season. T. D. M.

[illegible]—Shortly after leaving the Gol[illegible] on her late voyage to this city, the N. P. [illegible] Idaho was compelled to change [illegible] to avoid a collision with a large sailer, [illegible] blowing a gale at the time. Proceed[illegible] voyage, when but a short distance [illegible] Point Reyes, on Tuesday morning at 3 [illegible] again narrowly escaped colliding with [illegible] schooner bound south. The [illegible] was running before the wind, with all [illegible] although she was hailed several [illegible] could be elicited. The schooner [illegible] alongside, yet the officers of the [illegible] unable to see any light or life upon [illegible] The collision was prevented by the [illegible] of Captain Godfrey, who changed [illegible] of his ship to let the stranger pass. [illegible] we should call "going it blind."

[illegible] ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning one of [illegible] Forwarding Company's drays was [illegible] to the East Portland station with a [illegible] and rice for the Chinese going to [illegible] after all had been unloaded but a [illegible] of rice, which were to be sent back, the [illegible] his dray to return. Just at that [illegible] horse started, and the driver, missing [illegible] slipped under the wheel of the dray [illegible] escaped being run over about the [illegible] bystander said "Who" to the horse, and [illegible] just in time to prevent a serious acci[illegible]

[illegible] ACCIDENT.—About four miles south [illegible] the Saturday afternoon train from [illegible] the Oregon and California railroad, [illegible] thrown from the track and some slight [illegible] resulted to three or four passengers, and [illegible] and one passenger car was some[illegible] up. The accident occurred from [illegible] a fresh piece of track, which had [illegible] ballasted, and the ground sunk under [illegible] of the locomotive and cars. Mr. Geo. [illegible] his left shoulder dislocated, but no [illegible] of a serious nature resulted.

[illegible] EXPECTED.—The vessel passed just out[illegible] by the Idaho, is supposed to be the [illegible] W. Almy, now fully due at this port. [illegible] after placing a pilot on board the [illegible] vessel in tow, and if she succeeds [illegible] to-day, may be up this eve[illegible] the Monticello packet. The Almy [illegible] about the same time that the [illegible]

ANOTHER INSTANCE.—We have to note the arrival of Mr. P. W. Norris, of Detroit, Michigan, a gentleman who comes seeking a location for men who are desirous of removing to this coast. Mr. Norris has visited Montana and Idaho, but is not particularly favorable to any localities there found, for his purposes. What he wants most is a region capable of sustaining a thick settlement of hardy citizens who wish to make agriculture the basis of their support. Mr. Norris will leave for the Sound in the morning—but will come this way again on his return to Michigan. We give this as another instance tending to show the interest felt abroad about this part of the world.

WORK ON THE RAILROAD.—But very few people have the least idea of the actual amount of work being done at this time on the O. and C. R. R. It will be a surprise to most folk when the announcement of the arrival of the cars at Albany is made. To illustrate just how the work is proceeding, we can state that one week ago the grading force under Mr. Hart was in the lead of all the rest, and was eleven miles beyond Salem. On last Friday this force was sixteen miles beyond Salem, and the last or rear party. The work of putting down the iron follows the grading parties rather close.

PERSONAL.—Mr. E. F. Hooker, Western Traveling Agent for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroads, is at this time in Oregon on a tour of general inspection and business connected with the road. This route is said to be the most reliable to all eastern cities. The elegant parlor sleeping cars used on the road are built, owned and run by the company between Omaha and Chicago, and steel rails are now being laid on this road, making it smooth, safe and very desirable. See advertisement of the company in another column.

NEW FERRY.—We learn that the steam engines, built to order in New York for the ferry boat for the Oregon and California Railroad, to be used in crossing the Wallamet at this city, are soon to arrive. They are said to be powerful engines, and the boat, which will have a capacity to carry twelve or more cars at one trip, on a double track, will be built in time to receive the machinery. For this purpose a marine architect of considerable note, it is reported, has already been employed by the Company.

CHINESE ARTISANS.—The census taker in his rounds about this city, found several Chinese artisans. It is useless to say that a Chinaman cannot become skilled in the use of tools. As evidence of their handicraft see some of the work done by the Chinese carpenters of this city. An awning at the corner of Front and A streets, on the river side, is a standing monument to the Chinese artisan who built it—no white man could put up such an awning, and make it stand. Look at it, ye croakers.

WELCOME RAIN.—The rainy days last week were particularly gratifying to residents of this county, about nine miles southwest of this city. Fires in the woods were raging fearfully, and destroying much property in the vicinity of Mr. Thomas Smith's place, and the people had neglected all their work and fought fire for three days, when the rain, most welcome visitor, came to their relief, and their homes were permitted to remain unburned.

THE EAST PORTLAND CHARTER.—A meeting of the Anti-Incorporationists was held at the East Portland School House on Friday evening. Noah Kennedy was chosen to preside over the deliberations of the body, and John Smith was chosen Secretary. A remonstrance was presented and adopted, and a committee of three were appointed to circulate it, and Messrs. Gardner, Smith and Carter were delegated to go to Salem and lobby against the act to incorporate.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BERRY.—The funeral of Mrs. M. P. Berry, whose death occurred at the residence Mr. Wm. Wetzel in this city on Friday last, was to have taken place at the Dalles yesterday, whither the remains were taken on Saturday. This sad event leaves Major Berry a lone man, having lost both wife and children, and his many friends in Oregon will sympathize deeply with him in this affliction.

RELIEF.—The family reported in distress at East Portland, a few days since, have found temporary relief in contributions raised for them on Friday by two gentlemen of this city, to the amount of $65. So far as it goes this is well, but we understand the case actually requires farther assistance. Particulars will be made known upon application to Hon. W. W. Page, or Mr. Jacob Stitzel.

FOR THE FRONT.—Yesterday two platform cars, loaded with Chinese, left in the morning train for the front to be set at work in a new grading force. The usual wrangling about baggage occurred at the embarkation, and in one instance grew so torrid as to lead to a blaze of fury which resulted in a knock down, in which three or four of the flowery kingdom representatives got worsted by their fellows.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A man yesterday dislocated his shoulder in this city while putting on his pantaloons. It seems that there was a hole in the inside lining, near the bottom of the right leg of his garment, into which he ran his foot, and in stumbling about on one foot, fell over and dislocated his shoulder. He is a painter by trade, and will probably be laid up for some time.

ACCIDENT AT RAINIER.—At the steam saw mills of Mr. Dean Blanchard, at Rainier, they have a car which is used on a track to carry lumber and wood about the mill yard. On Thursday last the car capsized with a load of lumber, and one of the men employed to run it was injured. His right leg was broken between the knee and ankle.

TRUSTEES.—The following are the Trustees and Visitors of the Portland Academy for the coming year: Trustees—J. F. DeVore, Henry Failing, E. M. Burton, J. C. Moreland, M. P. Deady, Wm. H. Watkins and Wm. Roberts. Visitors—Revs. Wm. Roberts, E. C. Anderson, Geo. H. Atkinson, Isaac Dillon, J. H. Wilbur and A. L. Lindsley.

NO LIKEE.—A Chinaman was arrested yesterday for celebrating his "15th of August" by firing crackers. The Chinese have been having a jollification every month this year. They are learning to imbibe a poor quality of tangle-foot, and are getting other foolish Melican ideas in their heads.

THE NEW ENGINE HOUSE.—Messrs. Emil Lowenstein & Co. have been awarded the contract by Protection Engine Company No. 4, for furnishing the second story of the new brick engine house for the sum of $1,325. This building will be a decided ornament to the south part of the city.

COSMOPOLITAN HOTEL.—The new proprietors of this Hotel are making active preparations for the reopening of the same. Pierre Manciot, of the Lafayette Restaurant, will have control of the dining department, which will be conducted upon the restaurant plan.

THE DALLES MINT.—Work in general is suspended for the present on the Dalles Branch Mint, but Superintendent Hogue informs us that he will soon resume operations—in part to prepare the work for protection this winter to be carried on again next year.

TO BE TRIED.—George Huber, the man who stabbed Fred. Williams, will be arraigned this morning before Recorder Anderson on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. It is said that the condition of Williams is very critical; that he may die.

ASTORIA CUSTOM HOUSE.—We are informed that the statement that work had been suspended upon the Astoria Custom House was erroneous. The usual force of employes is now engaged, and the work is being pushed with all possible dispatch.

ARRESTS.—Yesterday was a lively day for the police. Four arrests were made before six o'clock in the evening, and at the rate whisky was flowing we expect the jail is about as full as the box of a patent rat trap, this morning.

U. S. COURTS. The U. S. District Court for Oregon, Deady, Judge, will convene this morning at 10 o'clock. The U. S. Circuit Court, Deady, Judge, will meet at 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow, Tuesday, September 13th.

INDEBTEDNESS.—From the report of the Committee on Education submitted to the Oregon Conference of the M. E. Church, it appears that the present total indebtedness of the Wallamet University is $18,029 83.

REAL ESTATE.—A. B. Richardson sold at auction on Saturday lot 1 in block 103, on which is a good dwelling house, for the sum of $1,826. Chas. Risley, Esq., was the purchaser.

Sound Logic for the Sick.

The invalid has often good reasons to exclaim, "save me from my friends." As a general thing, each of them will have a different medicine to propose, and if he follows all their prescriptions in turn, their well-meant advice may be the death of him. The only sensible course in any case of sickness is to resort promptly to a specific which has stood the test of a long and widely extended public experience, and obtained on solid and sufficient grounds the reputation of a Standard Remedy. This rank among the restoratives of our day belongs of right, and beyond all dispute, to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Let those who are taking it answer for themselves as to its tonic properties. Can any dyspeptic who has ever used it, question its superiority as a stomachic over every other medicine? Can any person of bilious habit, who has ever taken it for liver complaint doubt its efficiency! It is believed among the tens of thousands who are now using, or have heretofore used it as an alterative and corrective, not one can be found who would exchange it for any other preparation in the known world. For intermittent fevers, nervous debility, constipation, sick stomach and all complaints arising from indigestion or impoverishment of the blood, it is the only article which can be conscientiously guaranteed, and no one who is thoroughly acquainted with its virtues will allow interested dealers in worthless slops, on which they make a larger profit, to furnish them in the place of the great vegetable restorative.

OR
DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and Cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extract of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headaches, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by druggists at $1 00 per bottle. Prepared at the Chemical Laboratory of R. V. PIERCE, M. D.,

A BERLIN LETTER

A NEW [illegible] TAKEN [illegible] MARCH [illegible] PLAN OF THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN [illegible] —THE NEED [illegible] —SPECULATION AS TO THE PRUSSIAN DEMANDS [illegible] NOT EFFECTUAL

Correspondence [illegible]

BERLIN Aug 12 1870

When the history of this war between Prussia and France shall be written it will appear that the idea had long been [illegible] to both parties This is the Bismarck's war. The good old King tried every way to avert it. He gave Benedetti audience [illegible] and at any time introduced the subject of Leopold's non-acceptance of the Spanish crown [illegible] to the French Minister on the promenade at Ems, and it would seem not as the King of Prussia but as the head of the Hohenzollern house was willing to make [illegible] which the French might ask for. It was at his own suggestion that Benedetti [illegible] last memorable call at the palace [illegible] after the morning meeting on the promenade. Why then did the King tell him when he called that he had nothing further to communicate? Because meanwhile the Minister of the Interior had arrived from Berlin with a letter from Bismarck saying that if those semi-official interviews between the King and the French Ambassador were to be continued at Ems the King must accept the resignation of his Prime Minister

Even then the parting of the King and Benedetti was friendly The understanding was that the matter was to be adjusted with satisfaction to the French in the ordinary way, by diplomacy What inflamed all Germany and France too was Bismarck's telegraphic dispatch, written by himself yet published without his signature representing Benedetti as insulting the King and ejected from the palace for his impudence It was that dispatch which united for the time the South German States with the Northern and raised the cry On to Paris It was that dispatch which made all France boil over with rage, and precipitated the declaration of war Probably ninety nine men in every hundred throughout Germany and France too believe to-day that there was a kind of quarrel at Ems between the King and Benedetti In almost every shop window here in Berlin one sees the photograph of the ambassador representing him as pushed down the steps of the palace by a strong Prussian hand his hat and French documents carried away by the wind Nothing is further from the truth While the crowd here was filling the Unter den Linden, and shouting Down with France, the King and Benedetti all unconscious of any unpleasantness between each other were affectionately exchanging salutations at the railway station at Ems If Bismarck were approached on the matter of this dispatch he would possibly disclaim all responsibility in the affair and point to the fact that it emanated from the telegraph bureau, and was published with the same authority as the transactions of the bourse in the same column If confronted with the proof that he did write it himself he would say for he does say—that a war with France was certain to come that the history of the diplomacy between the two nations since 1866 which he has just published proves it and if there must be a war, it is better for Prussia that it come now than later

The old King felt that he had glory enough and he wanted peace But for Bismarck and Moltke he would have seen Benedetti again and again and the whole affair might have been amicably arranged and the conflict with arms postponed all admit it The Germans North and South care nothing for Leopold whether he ever sits on the throne of Spain or not. They have no idea of fighting for him but their dear old King has been insulted, and especially at the instigation of Napoleon, the hated Emperor of the hated French they are ready to die for the honor of their King and of their Fatherland This is the language of the press and of the pulpit for the ministers are all learning to preach politics, and some of them have been reminding us how swiftly the judgments of heaven are visited on the nations that favor the dogma of infallibility

The plan of the present campaign is that which the Prussians have always adopted viz of dividing their army into three parts with the purpose of concentrating their forces at some future time General Steinmetz commands the right wing with about 80 000 men including the Seventh and Eighth corps with a cavalry corps of picked men Frederick Charles commands the centre with the Third Fourth, Ninth and Tenth army corps a corps of National Guard, a corps of Saxons and another of Hessians in all perhaps a little less than 200,000 men. The third or left wing is under the command of the Crown Prince and is composed of the Fifth and Eleventh corps two Bavarian corps one Wurtemburg corps and one corps of Badeners,—160 000 men In the rear are the First, Second and Sixth corps from which in cases of losses by sickness, death or capture, the number of the fighting army is constantly kept full There are eighteen battalions in reserve each battalion containing 1 003 men besides officers Besides these are 200,000 men known as the Landwehr, our militia. They are men who have not yet served three years in the army, but who afford material from which the number of the reserve may be constantly kept full In time of peace one looks with contempt on this Prussian military system, which takes three years out of the life of every young man no matter what his standing is or what his purposes may be, but when war comes it requires no spirit of prophecy to say that such men cannot be easily beaten

A French captain brought here as a prisoner, confessed that the French army were astonished at the fighting qualities of the Prussians These three years of athletic exercises have perceptibly improved the physical condition of the race We had some strong men in the army but these Prussians who have gone to the front leaving their grain standing in the field are all the sons of athletic men, themselves wonderfully developed by scientific discipline The needle gun is a rude, unfinished and heavy arm our boys in blue could not have carried it but it must be remembered that since 1847 it has been the only arm used in Prussia, and these soldiers are accustomed to it What if the French have something better? It is [illegible], and in that consists its imperfection This needle gun is heavy, and so is the blacksmith's sledge, and the Prussian has handled it from a boy, has never known any other gun, and from that fact we shall see its efficiency

One of the most interesting features of this war is the plan which every German has formed for the future One can say little about the King, for he went away with a countenance careworn and dispirited but from Bismarck, who is at the front to the youth of twenty who has just enlisted are all "on to Paris The popular determination is strong—too strong to allow Bismarck to return until he has seen the capital of France In this spirit the whole German nation is now, previous to the period of incubation taking the census of its feathered brood This is to be the result After the surrender of Paris and the French army to the Prussians Bismarck is to wait for the formation of a provisional government with which he can form a treaty—for never again will [illegible] recognize Napoleon as the Emperor of the French He is to be given up to the republicans to be punished as they may deem best When the provisional government shall be organized or the house of Orleans may succeed Napoleon if they will Bismarck will ask to re-occupy Luxembourg, and that the province of Alsace shall cease to be French At this England is expected to hold up her hands in horror at the disturbance of the balance of power and Bismarck will reply Oh Prussia asks nothing for herself She is entirely disinterested, but Bavaria and Wurtemburg [illegible] for them we plead The balance of power requires that those little kingdoms [illegible] easy to be crushed should be strengthened at least by the acquisition of Alsace More over a tax is to be levied on France for the payment of the expenses of the war This is the German plan They expect defeat and losses in the execution of this plan It will take time to carry it out but in the end it is the object to be attained and they defy the power of Austria and Italy and England too to stop them

Those Southerners here whose hearts are still boiling over with gratitude to Napoleon for the good will he manifested toward them in their old struggle for independence are evidently chagrined that the so [illegible] the progress of the [illegible] Even [illegible] no comparison [illegible] of the Southern [illegible] Over two French [illegible] ing around the mouth of the Elbe but ships come in and go out the port of Hamburg as freely as ever While I sat for an hour a few days since reading the American papers in the [illegible] I saw him [illegible] be [illegible] from Hamburg [illegible] trade between the two countries

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to the Stock

A portion of the ONE HUNDRED SHARES was sold [illegible] and a large number of shares have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will give a general idea of the plan and workings of the Association the location of the land etc etc

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since is now ready to dispose of shares As it is with one exception (the [illegible] Homestead Association) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city it may be well [illegible] state what are its purposes and [illegible] which it is proposed to conduct its operations The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word They are dependent for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co operation of many individual shareholders and the advance in values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of but still near the city The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river its nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river half a mile in length and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad half a mile in length the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them) the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H It is divided into 74 blocks 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots along the river front The shares number 600 worth $60 per share It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do so the blocks of lots and lots will be put up at auction to the highest bidder the proceeds of such sales after deducting the original price of shares or lots to be divided equally among the whole number of shares Thus if a person wants a particular lot or block and is willing to pay $100 or $300 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders It will be seen therefore that everything is co-operative and all interests mutual No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal shareholder There is no chance for loss unless the property by some chance should depreciate far below the first actual cost Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself but considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood and at East Portland and vicinity for the last year or two it seems hardly possible for values to go back

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares representing three blocks or twenty four lots and votes determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner The buyers of shares may pay down $60 per share which will exempt them from all assessments or they may pay $5 quarterly with an assessment of $1 per share payable with the first installment being [illegible] in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share Upon the payment of the shares in full with the assessment as above the holder is entitled to his certificate and his proportion of all the profits accrued from all sources No officer of the Association receives any pay for services except the Secretary who gets $25 per month so it will be seen that the expenses must be light

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau nearly level about 60 to 90 feet above the water There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream That part of the tract lying along the railroad is every foot of it of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract affording the means of irrigation and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders Within a year each shareholder if he choose may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent or he may continue his interest undivided with the Association while the organization may exist —Oregonian

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads in the outskirts of the city and East Portland is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes and one homestead—the Riverside just south of East Portland has already been established The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing It is shaped like the letter H one side of which a half mile in length borders on the river

From that portion of the homestead which is elevated [illegible] above the other prong of the H but is still [illegible] above the river can be had an extensive view of Portland East Portland the shipping and [illegible] The land [illegible] and is partly covered with light fir timber A [illegible] wide enough for two rows of blocks with an avenue between them connects the west [illegible] has already been [illegible] The last tract of land is in a beautiful [illegible] valley [illegible] state of cultivation [illegible] trout brook [illegible] water [illegible] With a hydraulic ram the Association [illegible] pipes to every portion of the homestead —Daily Bulletin
